

Preparing for the Wedding Rehearsal:

- Would the officiant like the marriage license at rehearsal?
- Does the officiant have/need a mike?
- What are the restrictions for the Photographer? Videographer?
- Is there a dressing/waiting area for the Wedding Party?
- Is there a kneeling bench?
- Will the Wedding Party stand during the ceremony?
- What arm does the Father offer the bride?
- What arm do the ushers offer the guests?
- Which side of the church/synagogue is the bride's side?
- Where do the ushers sit after they are finished seating guests?
- Are parents to be ushered out of the church or follow the wedding party?
- Are the guests to be released by ushers or follow the wedding party out?
- If alter or aisle candles are being used is candle lighter provided?
- If there is an aisle clothe, who will place and secure it?
- If altar pictures are before ceremony, will the aisle cloth be placed after pictures?
- How does the bride prefer the men stand? At the alter with hands at side, front or back?
- How will the bride and maids hold their bouquets?
- How many pews/rows does each family need to reserve in the front?
- Who will have the rings on wedding day?